Dear Teacher,

One child, one teacher, one pen and one book can change the world, wrote Malala Yousafzai. So true are these words, for it is only you who can change the world if you decide to. Teachers are the only set of people who can guide the youth of today and mentor them. Hence, my emphasis has always been on you mentoring and moulding the students entrusted under your care. Without you as a guide beside them, the youth will only be lost in this world. To guide them and mentor them, your positive spirit is very important. Very often I have told you that as a teacher you need not be confined within the four walls of your classroom and hence I always insist that you guide them in every step. Whether it is their dressing or their hair style or their behavior, their learning comes from you. It is one of the best relationships that you as a teacher can cherish and the student as the mentee can cherish and remember all his life. To be remembered as a teacher was Dr Radhakrishnan's dream and this is a guiding motto for all of us REVA. We remember Dr Radhakrishnan the greatest teacher on this day!

History has had good examples of a teacher as we look back at our own history. Mahatma Gandhiji has been the best teacher to our country as he practiced and preached what we revere today as Gandhian philosophy. Tagore was another great teacher who believed that teaching can be done without books as he wrote : Of course, it would be foolish to underrate the advantages of the book. But all the same we must admit that the book has its limitations and its dangers.

Mythology has examples of great teachers like Parashurama who was a great teacher to Bhishma and the rest is history. Drona's lessons in life made Arjuna what he was, the greatest archer and one who brought in the concept of Dharma into the world. The best CEOs are the ones who teach strategy to their team members to steer the company forward. Lessons are learnt and there are Gurus in every profession. How we make a difference to the role we play is where the challenge lies. At REVA, this is what I have been emphasizing on and to me this change by a teacher and the REACH is possible from you as a teacher. Go beyond the teaching in the classroom to the life of each and every student and bring in that difference to your role as a teacher.

Happy Teachers Day to all of you!

Dr P. Shyama Raju
Chancellor

Dear All,

As a part of REVA Tradition , Ethnic Day is every year organised during TEACHERS' DAY.Continuing with the practice this year too ETHNIC DAY is organised on 3rd September 2020 i.e. Thursday . Directors , Assistant Directors ,Class Teachers and Mentors are expected to convey this information to all students and encourage them to actively involve in Ethnic DAY celebrations . Class teachers are expected to collect the photos of all your class students in ETHNIC WEAR and make a beautiful collage of it with your School name, class and section and submit to your concerned school director. The best class group pictures will be uploaded in our website. Regarding Faculty Ethnic wear , concerned school directors are expected to collect the pictures of all your staff members teaching and non-teaching and make a collage of the same with your school name .

The above instructions applies to all RIPU staff and students too

Students class group pictures and staff collage should reach the Branding team on or 4th September 2020 before 12 noon

Give wide publicity of the ETHNIC DAY Celebrations and ensure that all students and staff actively involve in the event and make it a grand success by adding variety and colour to it .

Teachers' Day will be celebrated on 5th September,2020 at 10.30 A.M.The detailed program will be sent later.

Subject: World Teachers' Day Wishes

"Better than a thousand days of diligent study is one day with a great teacher."
A Japanese Proverb

On this World Teachers' Day, I fondly recall the famous statement of India's beloved academician and Former President of India Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan, who said, "Knowledge gives us power, love gives us fullness."

As academicians, sharing knowledge and imparting quality education is the biggest gift we can give to our students, and I am proud to share REVA University is striving at imparting quality education.

The last 18 months have affected traditional teaching-learning, and teachers have played a vital role in ensuring that students have not been deprived of learning. Your commitment to educate students and nurture them even in the toughest circumstances has been inspiring.

Our commitment, dedication, and aspiration to be the best University has helped REVA University grow from a small community of 150 students to a vast community of 15,000 students. As we take pride in how far we have come, you must not forget there are many milestones to benchmark and more miles to go before we rest.

We must not forget that we aspire to be one of the top global educational destinations and all our efforts must align to achieve this. Make use of the infrastructure, acquire new skills, and stay updated to make a difference in this era that blends education and technology.

On this occasion, I extend warm wishes to all the faculty members who have been an integral part of our growth and I appreciate your dedication.

Warm wishes to you all on this World Teachers' Day!

Mon 9/5/2022 5:02 AM

The image is a vertical greeting card for Teachers' Day. At the top right, it features the REVA UNIVERSITY logo with the text 'REVA UNIVERSITY' and 'Bengaluru, India'. On the left, there is a black and white line drawing of an elderly man with glasses and a turban. In the center, the number '60' is written in a large, bold, orange font, followed by 'th Teachers' Day' and '1962 - 2022' in a smaller font, and '5th September' at the bottom. The background is a light orange color with a subtle geometric pattern. The text of the card is as follows:

Dear REVAite,

Teaching is more than just a professional commitment to impart knowledge or share perspectives. It is a personal commitment to believe in the possibility of social change and contribute to it. I believe that as teachers of this University, there's no better time than Teachers' Day to reflect on these ideas, reframe our duties, and re-examine them. By doing so, I am sure we are participating in the transformative experience that makes the world a better place.

On this very special day, I am happy to announce that the School of Performing Arts & Indic Studies in REVA is launching ABHIVYAKTI, a certificate programme for K-12 teachers. This is part of the Outreach Programme & Teacher Empowerment Strategy of REVA and is organised for all the CBSE/ICSE/State board government and private schools.

Moreover, I am delighted to thank all the teachers in REVA for their outstanding contribution to teaching and their commitment and dedication to inspiring young minds.

I look forward to continuing working with you so that we create an ecosystem for our future generation which is student-centric and where there is a mutual sharing of information and dialogue.

I wish all the REVAites a Happy Teachers' Day!
